

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 1272

To provide for the expeditious disclosure of records related to civil rights cold cases, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 1, 2017

Mr. RUSH introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform

A BILL

To provide for the expeditious disclosure of records related to civil rights cold cases, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Cold Case Record Col-
5 lections Act of 2017”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 The Congress finds the following:

8 (1) All government records related to civil 9 rights cold cases shall be preserved for historical and 10 governmental purposes.

1 (2) All government records concerning civil
2 rights cold cases shall carry a presumption of imme-
3 diate disclosure, and all records shall be eventually 4 disclosed to enable the public to become fully in-
5 formed about the history surrounding the cases.

6 (3) Legislation is necessary to create an en-
7 forceable, independent, and accountable process for 8 the public disclosure of such records.

9 (4) Legislation is necessary because congres-
10 sional records related to civil rights cold cases would 11 not otherwise be subject to public disclosure.

12 (5) Legislation is necessary because section 552
13 of title 5, United States Code (commonly known as 14 the Freedom of Information Act), as implemented by 15 the executive branch, has prevented the timely and 16 adequate public disclosure of records relating to civil 17 rights cold cases.

18 (6) Legislation is necessary because Executive 19 Order 13526 (75 Fed. Reg. 707; relating to classi-20 fied national security information), while eliminating 21 the declassification and downgrading of schedules re-
22 lating to classified information across government,
23 has not resulted in the timely and adequate public
24 disclosure of records relating to civil rights cold
25 cases.

1 (7) Most of the records related to the civil 2 rights cold cases are almost 50 years old and only 3 in the rarest cases is there any legitimate need for 4 continued protection of such records.

2 enactment of this Act, without any redaction, adjust-
3 ment, or withholding under the standards of this 4 Act; and

5 (2) transmit to the Archivist upon approval for

20 RECORDS.—

21 (1) IN GENERAL.—Each postponed or redacted

22 essary by an identifiable harm to military de-23 fense, intelligence operations, or the conduct of 24 foreign relations; and

1 (B) the identifiable harm is of such gravity
2 that it outweighs the public interest in disclo-
3 sure.

4 (h) DIGITIZATION OF RECORDS.—Executive branch
5 agencies shall make text searchable documents available
6 to the Review Board pursuant to standards established by 7 section 552(a)(3) of title 5, United States Code.

8 SEC. 5. GROUNDS FOR POSTPONEMENT OF PUBLIC DISCLO-
9 SURE OF RECORDS.

10 Disclosure of Civil Rights Cold Case records or par-
11 ticular information within a cold case record to the public
12 may be postponed subject to the limitations of this Act
13 if there is clear and convincing evidence that:

14 (1) The threat to the military defense, intel-
15 ligence operations, or the conduct of domestic affairs
16 of the United States posed by the public disclosure 17 of the cold case record is of such gravity that the 18 disclosure outweighs the public interest and would 19 reveal—

20 (A) an intelligence source or method that 21 is currently used, or reasonably expected to be 22 used, by the United States Government and 23 which has not been officially disclosed, the dis-
24 closure of which would interfere with the con-
25 duct of intelligence activities; or

1 (B) any other matter relating to the mili-
2 tary defense, intelligence operations, or conduct
3 of foreign relations with the United States, the 4 disclosure of which would demonstrably impair
5 the national security of the United States.

6 (2) The public disclosure of the cold case record
7 would reveal the name or identity of a living person
8 who provided confidential information to the United 9 States and would pose a substantial risk of harm to 10 that person.

11 (3) The public disclosure of the cold case record
12 could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwar-
13 ranted invasion of personal privacy, and that inva-
14 sion of privacy is so substantial that the protection
15 of privacy outweighs the public interest.

16 (4) The public disclosure of the cold case record
17 would compromise the existence of an understanding 18 of confidentiality currently requiring protection be-
19 tween a Government agent and a cooperating indi-
20 vidual or group and public disclosure would be so
21 harmful that the understanding of confidentiality
22 outweighs the public interest.

23 (5) The public record of the cold case record
24 would reveal a security or protective procedure used, 25 or reasonably expected to be used, by the United

1 States Secret Service or another executive agency re-
2 sponsible for protecting Government officials, and 3 public disclosure would be so harmful that protective 4 procedure outweighs the public interest.

5 SEC. 6. ESTABLISHMENT AND POWERS OF THE COLD CASE

15 ficiency, neglect of duty, malfeasance in office,
16 physical disability, mental incapacity, or any 17 other condition that substantially impairs the 18 performance of the member's duties.

19 (2)(A) If a member of the Review Board is re-

12 (3)(A) A member of the Review Board removed
